The Story of Our School

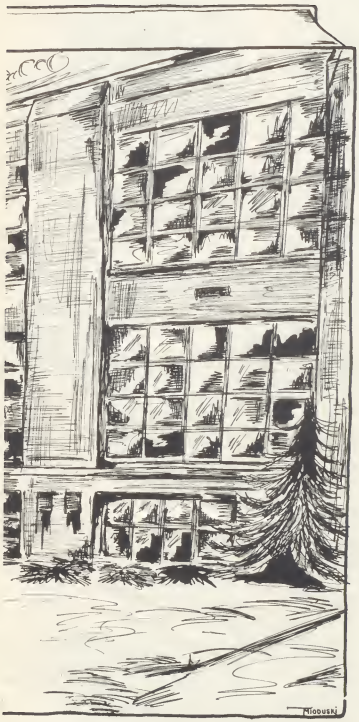

MEMORIES

Hobart High School
Hobart, Indiana

The Setting

Did you ever think of our school as a story? Probably not, but actually it has setting, characters, and plot. The setting is Hobart High itself — the familiar halls and classrooms, the portables and Brickie Bowl, the tree lined walk in front. The people of our school as they study, work, and play together are characters in an intricate plot. This plot has elements of excitement, achievement, and just plain fun, for it involves the activities that we all enjoy.

With this combination — the setting, the characters, and the plot we present the story of 1950-1951 in Hobart High School.

The band portable . . . scene of the hours of practice that make possible our championship bands.

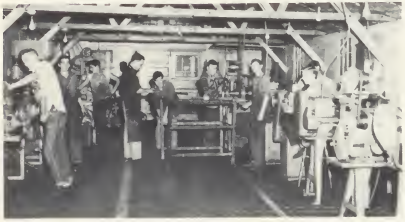

The locker room (Grand Central Station of Hobart High). Do you think all those kids will get through that little door?

The walls are brown, but we call it the "Blue room" tradition you know . . . After their race to the cafeteria D. Leonard, J. Sansone, and W. Bussie race to see who can eat the most bread.

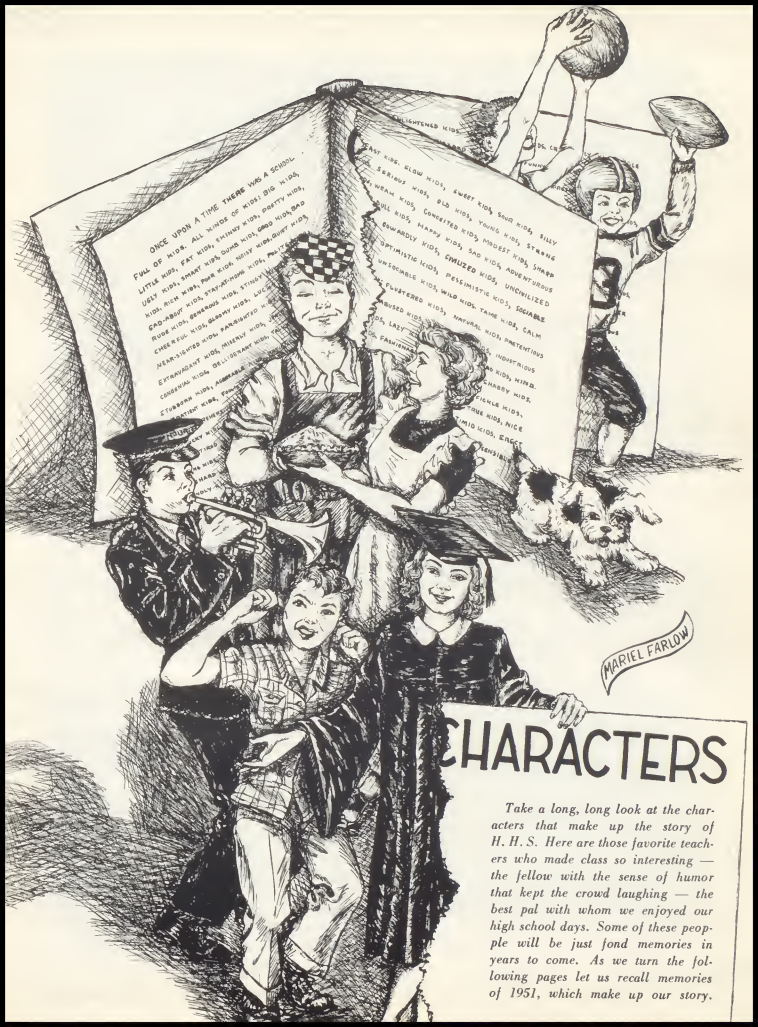

Familiar Scenes

A busy hour in our well equipped machine shop . . . Don't they look industrious?

It's time to go home! Those familiar yellow buses are a welcome sight at the end of a long school day

CHARACTERS

Take a long, long look at the characters that make up the story of H. H. S. Here are those favorite teachers who made class so interesting — the fellow with the sense of humor that kept the crowd laughing — the best pal with whom we enjoyed our high school days. Some of these people will be just fond memories in years to come. As we turn the following pages let us recall memories of 1951, which make up our story.

Familiar Faces

Here are some of the friendly folks who will remain in our memories as the background of our school days. Since they made the years at Hobart High more pleasant and safe, they are important characters in our story.

Mrs. Thomas Schroll, public librarian, has been a friend to Hobart students ever since she came to the library across the street in 1945.

Herman Wesley, whom we will remember for his bright smile, has been in this school system longer than any other janitor. For 27 years he has been pushing his broom around Hobart High.

Paul Sohn, the cop on the corner, keeps us safe during that noon hour rush.

Emil Strom, the kindly old gentleman usually seen with his pipe and broom, is 72 years old, the oldest janitor on the staff and well known to all Hobart students.

These jovial ladies are the cafeteria cooks who serve us every day. Mrs. Arthur Balitz, Mrs. Frank Graff, Mrs. Emma Shrock, not shown Mrs. Edward Dykhuis.

A typical morning in senior homeroom. Notice the bright faces, smiling in anticipation of the day's classes. Don't they look alert and intelligent?

No they didn't get up in the middle of the night to go to school; the darkness outside the windows is the effect of the flashbulb.

Wilfong and B. Hutchins. 12. Those educational field trips! — J. Christian, B. Fahey, B. Fedorchak.

All of the comedy and tragedy of life combine to form the plot of our story. As we sat in classes there were serious moments of thought and contemplation of horizons. Then there were those bursts of sudden laughter when the teacher joined in gay moments of fun. These are ordinary things, but they are part of the plot which made our highschool days a story to remember.

Organizations and sports filled the days with lively interest, lending excitement to the plot. Let's look back on the games and dances, concerts and plays, classes and convos of 1950-1951.

Hobart High

RICHARD A. WORTHINGTON
Director

For 26 years the Hobart High School Band has worked unceasingly to keep their musicianship at a high standard. William Revelli, Bertram Francis, and Frederick Ebbs all added their individual abilities to making a famous band, and now Richard Worthington, an alumnus of the band, is carrying on the traditions set for him by these talented men.

The first of the year started off with a blare of color and briskness as the marching band snapped through their formations. Next came the concert season with the band tackling numbers like "Capriccio Italien" by Tschaikowski or "Death and Transfiguration" by Richard Strauss that would stump most college bands. Solo and ensemble contests offered another challenge which was met and conquered in the traditional Hobart way.

And then it was time for that all-important tour to Washington, D.C., several eastern states and Canada. Maybe not all the members shook hands with the President, but that certainly didn't spoil the success of their trip.

Now the year has come to an end. Seniors who have toiled six years as part of this organization will now be leaving. They will carry with them, however, many pleasant memories of the parts, big or little, that they played in the band's growing reputation for getting a lot of fine things accomplished by talent, perseverance, and just plain hard work.

Hobart High School

HILMER JACOBSEN
Director

The well-known and beautiful strains of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" swelled out clear and strong last November 14 as the Hobart High School Chorus once more thrilled the audience with a wonderful performance.

The choir has been especially busy this year entertaining for local groups — PTA, Women's Club, and several others -- while the student body enjoyed their music at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter convocations.

At the Solo and Ensemble contests this year individual members of the choir did very well. Barbara

a Cappella Choir

Blachly and Beulah Reynolds received first place ratings on their solos.

Barbara Blachly, Beulah Reynolds, and Rosellyn Lowry, members of the Girls' Trio, have joined their voices many times to entertain class parties and club dances.

In April the choir participated in the State Chorus contest at Goshen, Indiana, and presented a spring concert April 27 with Miss Carol Smith, contralto, of stage, radio and television fame, as guest soloist. They made their final appearance of the year assisting the band in their spring concert.

Queen Marlene Hamann, our blue-eyed senior cheerleader, reigned at the gala Homecoming celebration October 30 when we played Merrillville. Shirley Kohn and Mariel Farlow were chosen as Marlene's court.

Homecoming

The treasure was the game, and the Brickies captured Pirate Island when the Merrillville Pirates invaded Brickie Bowl. The sophomore class copped first prize of $5.00 for their novel display.

John Helfrich, secretary-treasurer of the H-Men, did the honors by crowning the queen at a ceremony on the football field between halves of the game.

Varsity Cheerleaders—Mary Matsey, Lorraine Rosenbaum, Marilyn Thornton, Marian Storey, and Marlene Hamann.

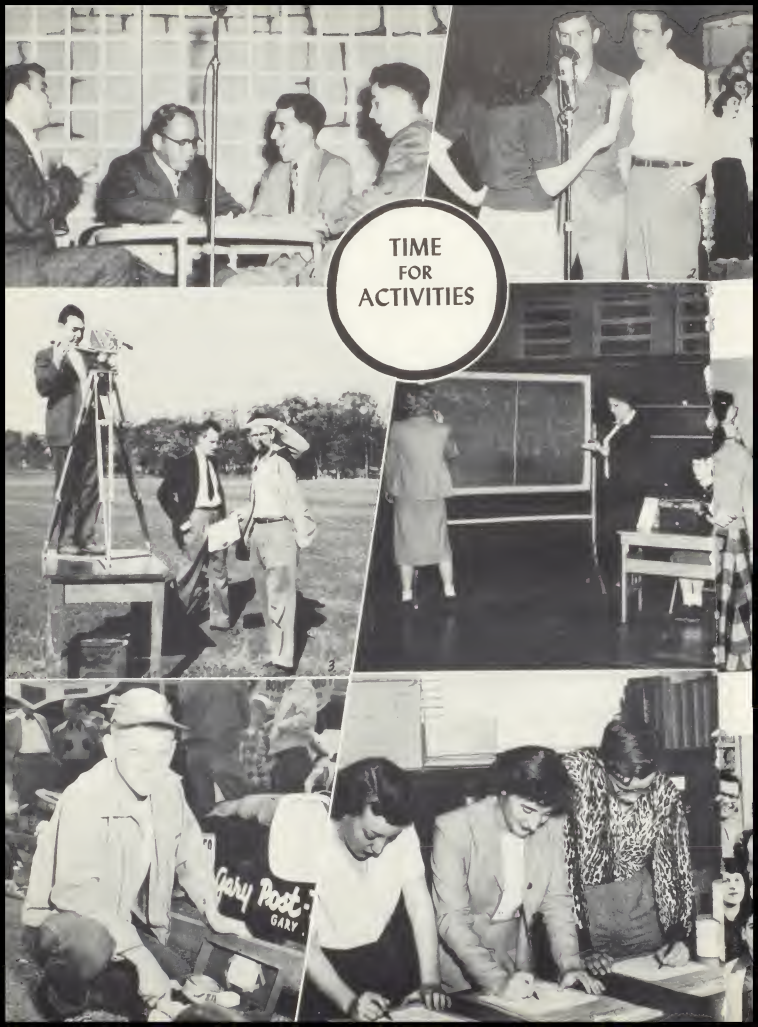

Reserve Cheer Leaders—Betty Bond, Pat Manis, Loretta Massa, Jeanne Hallas.

All the smarties donned dunce caps at the Honor Society Dance honoring those who got 2.75 or above on the honor roll. Pat Mynatt, and Tom Moore show their invitations to Erma Crum.

We gaze in awe as Hobart High's guardian spirit, Yohan Petrovich, flexes his muscles.

1. These teachers really let down their hair in a humorous skit at the "TV on Parade" show given in November by the Central P.T.A. Robert Osborn, Denver Ulery, Ellis Hays, Warren Garner showed how they thought women act at a bridge party.

2. Hobart High went on the air February 19—Mariel Farlow and Bill Keene interviewing Bill Matsey, captain of the basketball team, as part of the program depicting school activities.

3. In October color movies were made of our famous marching band by these photographers from the Indiana University Audio-Visual Center. The movies will be used all over the world in colleges and schools to demonstrate fundamentals of marching.

4. We observed National Education Week in October by giving demonstrations of classes for our parents. Here are Janet Heller, Miss Helen Hopp, and Marlene DeBoy in a shorthand and typing demonstration.

5. A celebrity in our midst . . . We were proud of Tommy Kurth when he won the Soap Box Derby last summer and flew to Akron, Ohio, where he represented Gary in the National race.

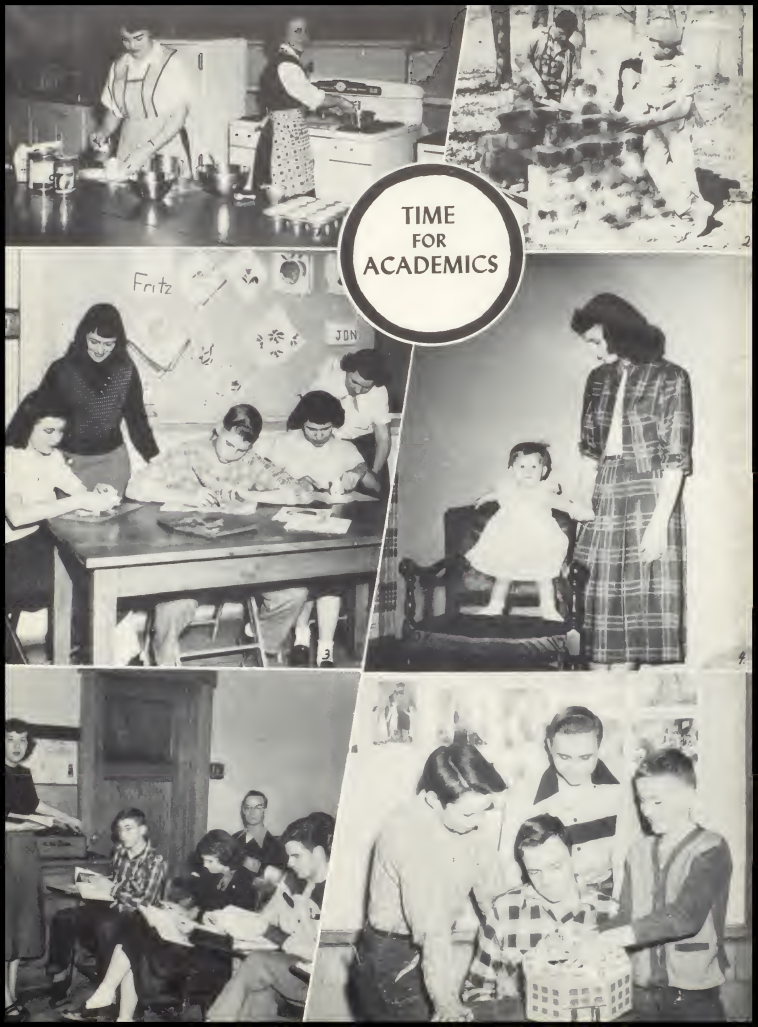

6. Remember when we all proudly signed our names to the Declaration of Freedom scroll during Crusade for Freedom week? Pat Forsythe, Peggy Murray, and Bill Swartzell add their names to the list.

7. Mr. Jacobsen and part of Hobart High's choir when they portrayed Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians at the TV on Parade show.

8. The sparkling personality of Miss Erica Ludolph, a Valparaiso University student from Germany, fascinated Hobart students when she spoke to us in December. Here Mariel Farlow, Roy Dixon, and Pat Watkins talk to her after the convocation.

9. Senior Play Cast: First row—Richard Elisha (Corky Williams), Richard Przeniczny (Chauncey Jay Mooney). Second row—Gwen Gee (Miss Higgins), Marilyn Noble (Miss Thorndyke), Donna Ahlgrim (Roxanne Tawner), Madalene Hajvert (Clarissa Green). 1. Who put the baking powder in Mary Bracken's cupcakes? Mary Bracken, of course, in Miss Flynn's first hour foods class, while Loretta Massa practiced boiling water.

2. One of the first jobs done by Mr. Carlock's building trade boys last fall was building the fireplace in the new Hobart park. Shown here are Jerry Christian and Tom Machin.

3. Some of the creative geniuses in Miss Elda Anderson's art class: Marian Storey and Joyce Hickman do a little soap carving and Bob Zakzewski works on his textile design as Jeanette Blake and Ethel McIntire look on.

4. Learning how to sew for the younger generation, Doris Cullum made this cute little frock for her niece in Mrs. Beasy's advanced clothing class.

5. Students in Miss Zimmer's Spanish classes had fun learning to pronounce Spanish words by singing along with records. Here Miss Zimmer puts on a record while Bill Vinzant, Pat O'Neill, Weldon Davis, and Jim Thomason watch the words in the book and listen.

6. A model of the Globe Theater, made famous by Shakespeare, was one of the projects of Miss G. Anderson's fourth hour sophomore English classes. Charles Andrews, David Pender, Henry Broda, and Thomas Burke.

7. Mr. Mart's junior high science classes made posters like this one to help them in their study of the human body. Here are Andy Sepke, David Henley, and Nancy Gross.

8. Students in Miss Dean's 6th hour math class used these models to study measures. Here are Jack Walker and Eulene Vannest.

9. When Mr. Woods' seventh grade social studies class studied the Pilgrims, Beverly Bulza and Emmett Dorsey helped to make these models.

1950 FOOTBALL

The 1950 Hobart grid squad opened its season with a thrilling 32-13 win over Gary Froebel. Returning to Brickie Bowl for their first home game the Brickies brushed by East Gary 13-0, and then, with fullback Bruce Johnston scoring five touchdowns, blasted Lowell 33-6. The squad then made it four straight wins by edging Valparaiso's Vikings 20-13.

The Bulldogs of Crown Point snapped Hobart's winning streak by edging the Brickies 7-8, with a safety in the second quarter. The Deal-men then took on their traditional foe Merrillville in a Homecoming game thriller which the Brickies won 13-0. Griffith's Panthers, later to be crowned Calumet Conference champions, put the Brickies out of the conference race with a 34-7 win, but the squad bounced back the following week in fine style, with a 25-7 triumph over Wirt. Although they put up a fine fight against a much bigger team, the Brickies lost to Tolleston 7-34.

Saturday afternoon, November 11, the Brickies finished their season by winning from Terre Haute Garfield 13-0.

This year's squad will go into the record books as having the second best football record in the history of the high school with the team compiling 7 wins against 3 losses.

After the season was completed, Bruce Johnston, senior fullback, and John Pavlakovic, senior tackle, were selected on the Calumet Conference All-Star first team. Bob Moon, senior lineman was named left guard on the second team while juniors Bernard Drummond, Don Huminsky and Bill Cope received honorable mention.

Assistant Football Coach Howard Schneider and Head Football Coach Russell Deal.

1950 CROSS COUNTRY

Freshman Edward Boone won the honorary cross-country captain star by leading Brickie harriers with six first places, two seconds and two thirds in the ten-meet program for a total of 44 points. Other harrier runners and the points scored were as follows: Frank Broda (freshman) 34; John Helfrich (senior) 31; John Allen (sophomore) 19½; Bill Matsey (senior) 12; Fred Roach (junior) 11; Wayne Neill (freshman) 5¾ and Elmer Westen (junior) 1¾ points.

In the state championship meet held at Indianapolis, in which the Brickies came the closest of any Hobart team to a state championship by taking third place honors behind Anderson and Muncie Central high schools, the Hobart squad finished as follows: Boone 8, Broda 22, Helfrich 28, Neill 34, and Allen 39 for 131 points. Hobart's sixth and seventh men, Matsey and Roach, placed 43 and 59. A total of 144 runners took part in the two-mile hill and dale event which was captured by James Lambert of Muncie Central in 9:45.9 for a new state record.
